Bioethics Scholar Chosen In National Competition

Catherine Frenkel, a 3rd year medical student and Scholar in Bioethics, was 1 of 11 medical students and residents chosen in a national competition to design, develop, and edit a monthly issue of Virtual Mentor, American Medical Association journal of medical ethics. She attended the annual editor meeting at the AMA's Chicago headquarters. Her edition focused on ethical issues in surgical innovation. The authors she recruited include nationally known physicians and ethicists, as well as a practicing AMC surgeon and 2 medical students, one of whom is a scholars in bioethics. The issue can be found at http://virtualmentor.ama-assn.org/2010/02/toc-1002.html